

Values in Retirement Inventory

In the chart below, mark each value according to how you feel about it. Add others not on the list.

1 = Definitely not important 2 = Not too important 3 = Somewhat important

4 = Important 5 = Very important

Value:	1	2	3	4	5
Being with other people
Being with family
Making decisions
Helping others
Doing exciting things
Being alone at times
Having responsibilities
Influencing others
Developing new ideas
Sense of well-being
Time out of doors
Standard of living
Being challenged
Adventure
Compatibility
Winning
Independence
Having fun
Learning
Prestige
Public contact
Social contribution
Variety
Appearance, self
Appearance, surroundings
Effective use of time
Physical well-being
Mental stimulation
Keeping busy
Sense of belonging
Power of authority
Achievement
Other:					