WSBA 2013 Limited Practice Board Application Form
For Community Representatives

The Washington State Bar Association seeks non-lawyer applicants to the Limited Practice Board to fill a position representing the title insurance industry. The Limited Practice Board oversees administration of, and compliance with, the Limited Practice Rule (APR 12) authorizing certain lay persons to select, prepare, and complete legal documents pertaining to the closing of real-estate and personal property transactions. The four-year term will commence on January 1, 2014 and will end December 31, 2017. Limited Practice Board members are nominated by the WSBA Board of Governors and appointed by the Supreme Court.

Applications must be received at the WSBA offices by Friday, June 14, 2013.
