NO. 25700-A- 1258

The Washington State Supreme Court Limited License Legal Technician Board, having recommended the expeditious adoption of the proposed amendments to APR 28, APR 28 Appendix, RPCs and LLLT RPCs, and the Court having considered the amendments, and having determined that the proposed amendments will aid in the prompt and orderly administration of justice;

Now, therefore, it is hereby

ORDERED:

(a) That the proposed amendments as attached hereto are adopted.

(b) That pursuant to the emergency provisions of GR 9(j)(1), the proposed amendments will be published expeditiously in the Washington Reports and will become effective upon publication.

DATED at Olympia, Washington this _____ day of May, 2019.

GONZÁLEZ, J. (dissenting)—I cannot join the court's decision today. Any decision to expand the scope of the Limited License Legal Technician (LLLT) program requires careful evaluation of the program's sustainability, its potential benefits, and establishment of a methodology that will both ensure adherence to rules of professional conduct and ensure adequate client protection. We have the opportunity to do this as we are undertaking a comprehensive review of the structure of the Bar. Ironically, the majority fundamentally changes the LLLT program when, at the same time, we have required the Board of Governors to defer action on any proposed bylaw amendments concerning the role of LLLTs in the governance of the bar. Because the majority's ill-advised decision is a mistake and because it becomes effective on publication, I respectfully dissent.

The LLLT program was conceived as an effort to address the unmet civil legal needs of low-income Washingtonians. We ultimately determined that the area that needed most attention was family law and that assistance with preparing orders and assisting individuals with filling out forms would make a significant difference. It did not take long to realize that the business model adopted by the

In re Proposed Amendments to Limited License Legal Technician Rules Dissent from May 1, 2019 Order by González, J.

LLLT program was incompatible with meeting the needs of low-income individuals and so the program shifted to becoming a moderate means effort. Without any evidence of success, the program has begun expanding the scope of legal services that LLLTs are allowed to provide.

LLLTs were never meant to legally advocate on behalf of a client. The majority's hasty decision fundamentally alters the role of LLLTs, allowing LLLTs to immediately begin negotiating with opposing counsel, attending depositions, and appearing and responding to questions from the court without adequate legal training. Moreover, there is no training for judges or attorneys to accommodate this significant and immediate expansion of authority.

Further, even with this expansion, I have serious doubts that the LLLT program is financially sustainable for the Bar or provides a sustainable practice area for LLLTs themselves. It is entirely possible that we could tweak the program into financial sustainability, but we have been presented with no business plan or other meaningful evidence of how that might be done in a way that protects the public. Until the evidence supports a conclusion that the program can be sustainable without harm to the public, I am opposed to expanding its scope. The significant financial burden of the LLLT program on the Washington State Bar Association is not justified without a showing that there exists a sustainable business plan allowing LLLTs to meet the population's unmet legal needs.

In re Proposed Amendments to Limited License Legal Technician Rules Dissent from May 1, 2019 Order by González, J.

We must address the issue of unmet legal needs, but we must do it wisely and carefully. I respectfully dissent.

11 LLLT RPC 1.2 SCOPE OF REPRESENTATION AND ALLOCATION OF

12 AUTHORITY BETWEEN CLIENT AND LLLT

(a) Subject to paragraphs (c), (d), and (g), an LLLT shall abide by a client's decisions concerning the objectives of representation and, as required by Rule 1.4, shall consult with the client as to the means by which they are to be pursued. An LLLT may take such action on behalf of the client as is impliedly authorized to carry out the representation. An LLLT shall abide by a client's decision whether to settle a matter.

22 Comment

23 [1] [Unchanged.]

[2] Negotiation on behalf of a client and representation in court are beyond the authorized scope of an LLLT's practice. See APR 28(H). Accordingly, pParagraph (a) was modified from the Lawyer RPC to exclude references to settlements and criminal cases, and paragraph (d) was modified from the Lawyer RPC to exclude (and therefore prohibit) an LLLT from discussing with 1 a client the legal consequences of any proposed criminal or fraudulent conduct and assisting a 2 client in determining the validity, scope, meaning, or application of the law with respect to any 3 such conduct. In circumstances where a client has engaged or may engage in conduct that the 4 LLLT knows is criminal or fraudulent, the LLLT shall not provide services related to such 5 conduct and shall inform the client that the client should seek the services of a lawyer. 6

7 [3] Unlike a lawyer, an LLLT may perform only limited services for a client. -Under APR 28(G)(3), bBefore performing any services for a fee, an LLLT must enter into a written contract 8 with the client as required by APR 28(G)(2)., signed by both the client and the LLLT, that includes 9 the following: (a) an explanation of the services to be performed, including a conspicuous 10 statement that the LLLT may not appear or represent the client in court, formal administrative 11 12 adjudicative proceedings, or other formal dispute resolution process, or negotiate the client's legal rights or responsibilities, unless permitted under GR 24(b); (b) identification of all fees and costs 13 14 to be charged to the client for the services to be performed; (c) a statement that upon the client's request, the LLLT shall provide to the client any documents submitted by the client to the LLLT; 15 (d) a statement that the LLLT is not a lawyer and may only perform limited legal services (this 16 statement shall be on the first page of the contract in minimum twelve-point bold type print); (e) 17 a statement describing the LLLT's duty to protect the confidentiality of information provided by 18 19 the client and the LLLT's work product associated with the services sought or provided by the 20 LLLT; (f) a statement that the client has the right to rescind the contract at any time and receive 21 a full refund of unearned fees (this statement shall be conspicuously set forth in the contract); and (g) any other conditions to the LLLT's services that are required by the rules and regulations of 22 23 the Limited License Legal Technician Board.

[4] Additional requirements concerning the authorized scope of an LLLT's practice are 24 imposed by APR 28(F). An LLLT must ascertain whether the issue is within the defined 25 practice area for which the LLLT is licensed. If not, the LLLT shall not provide the services 26 required render any legal assistance on the issue and must informadvise the client to that the client 1 should seek the services of a lawyer. If the issue does lie within the defined practice area for 2 which the LLLT is licensed, then the LLLT is authorized to undertakerender the services that are 3 enumerated in APR 28(F). Those services include only the following: (a) obtain relevant facts 4 5 and explain the relevancy of such information to the client; (b) inform the client of applicable procedures, including deadlines, documents which must be filed, and the anticipated course of 6 7 the legal proceeding; (c) inform the client of applicable procedures for proper-service of process and filing of legal documents; (d) provide the client with self-help materials prepared by a 8 Washington lawyer or approved by the Limited License Legal Technician Board, which contain 9 information about relevant legal requirements, case law basis for the client's claim, and venue 10 and jurisdiction requirements; (e) review documents or exhibits that the client has received from 11 12 the opposing side, and explain them to the client; (f) select, complete, file, and effect service of forms that have been approved by the State of Washington, either through a governmental 13 14 agency or by the Administrative Office of the Courts or the content of which is specified by statute; federal forms; forms prepared by a Washington lawyer; or forms approved by the 15 Limited License Legal Technician Board; and advise the client of the significance of the selected 16 forms to the client's case; (g) perform legal research; (h) draft legal letters and documents 17 beyond what is permitted in (f) if the work is reviewed and approved by a Washington lawyer; 18 19 (i) advise a client as to other documents that may be necessary to the client's case, and explain how such additional documents or pleadings may affect the client's case; and (j) assist the client 20 21 in obtaining necessary documents, such as birth, death, or marriage certificates.

22 [5] An LLLT must personally perform the authorized services for the client and may not 23 delegate those services to a person who is not either an LLLT or a lawyer. This prohibition, 24 however, does not prevent a person who is neither an LLLT nor a lawyer from performing 25 translation services. APR 28(G)(21).

[6] An LLLT may not provide services that exceed the scope of the LLLT's authority under APR 28. If an issue arises for which the client needs services that exceed the scope of the LLLT's authority, the LLLT must inform that client that the client should seek the services of a lawyer.
 APR 28(G)(53).

[7] A document that is prepared by an LLLT for the client's signature shall include the LLLT's name, signature, and license number beneath the signature of the client. APR
 28(G)(5).[Reserved.]

[8] Certain conduct and services are specifically prohibited to an LLLT by APR 28(H). In 8 the course of dealing with clients or prospective clients, an LLLT shall not: (a) make any 9 statement that the LLLT can or will obtain special favors from or has special influence with any 10 court or governmental agency; (b) retain any fees or costs for services not performed; (c) refuse 11 12 to return documents supplied by, prepared by, or paid for by the client, upon the request of the client (the documents must be returned upon request even if there is a fee dispute between the 13 LLLT and the client); (d) represent or advertise, in connection with the provision of services, 14 other legal titles or credentials-that could cause a client to believe that the LLLT-possesses 15 professional legal skills beyond those authorized by the license held by the LLLT; (e) represent a 16 17 client in court proceedings, formal administrative adjudicative proceedings, or other formal dispute resolution process, unless permitted by GR 24; (f) negotiate a client's legal rights or 18 19 responsibilities, or communicate with another person the client's position or convey to the client the position of another party; unless permitted by GR 24(b); (g) provide services to a client in 20 21 connection with a legal matter in another state, unless permitted by the laws of that state to 22 perform such services for the client; (h) represent or otherwise provide legal or law related 23 services to a client, except as permitted by law, APR 28, or associated rules and regulations; or (i) otherwise violate these Rules. 24

2 [1]-[3] [Unchanged.]

[4] Unlike a lawyer, an LLLT is required by APR 28(G)(32) to enter into a written contract with the client before the LLLT begins to perform any services for a fee that includes, among other things, identification of all fees and costs to be charged to the client for the services to be performed. The provisions concerning a flat fee described in (f)(2) of this Rule, if applicable, should be included in that contract. The contract must be signed by both the client and the LLLT before the LLLT begins to perform any services for a fee. See Comment [2] to Rule 1.2 for other provisions that are to be included in the contract.

LLLTs may not advocate for, or appear in court on behalf of, a client. LLLTs will have no role in class action litigation and Rule 1.8(e)(2) is accordingly reserved in this Rule.
LLLT RPC 1.8(e) does not authorize activities that are beyond the scope of the LLLT's limited license. Nothing in Rule 1.8(e) is intended to prohibit lawyer members of a firm with which an LLLT is associated from engaging in conduct permitted by Lawyer RPC 1.8(e)(2).

Rule 1.8(g) is reserved. LLLTs are not permitted todo not engage in the making of aggregate settlements, or aggregated agreements as to guilty or nolo contendere pleas in criminal cases. Nothing in Rule 1.8(g) is intended to prohibit lawyer members of a firm with which an LLLT is associated from participating in such settlements if permitted by the Lawyer RPC.

such assistance, an LLLT may be authorized within the scope of a specific practice area to 1 accompany and assist a pro se client in certain proceedings. Assistance may include responding 2 to factual and procedural questions from a tribunal. For this reason, as As a member of the legal 3 profession, an LLLT is ethically bound to avoid advising or assisting a client in conduct that 4 5 undermines the integrity of the adjudicative process or threatens the fair and orderly administration of justice. As applied to the indirect conduct of LLLTs, the ethical proscriptions 6 of Lawyer RPC 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, and 3.4 are less-nuanced. Accordingly, they have been consolidated 7 within Rule 3.1(a) as a prohibition on counseling or assisting the client in such activities. Conduct 8 relating to the impartiality and decorum of a tribunal, Lawyer RPC 3.5, should be prohibited 9 whether engaged in by an LLLT directly or indirectly, and is separately addressed in paragraph 10 (b) of this Rule. Although less comprehensive than Title 3 of the Lawyer RPC, the core Title 3 11 12 principles incorporated into Rule 3.1 address the issues likely to be encountered by an LLLT, with supplemental guidance available in the corresponding Title 3 of the Lawyer RPC and 13 commentary thereto. 14

An\_LLLT acting as a "lay representative authorized by administrative agencies or  $\frac{121}{121}$ 15 tribunals" under GR-24(b)(3) would not be acting pursuant to the authority of his or her LLLT 16 license in that context, since such representation would be beyond the scope of LLLT practice 17 authorized by APR 28(F). Should an LLLT engage in conduct as a lay advocate that would 18 otherwise directly violate a Title 3 obligation - for example, by knowingly making a false 19 statement of fact to an administrative tribunal such conduct may violate the requirements of 20 21 other rules. See, e.g., Rule 8.4(c) (prohibiting conduct involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit, and misrepresentation) and Rule 8.4(d) (prohibiting conduct prejudicial to the administration of 22 justice). 23

[32] Certain provisions of Title 3 of the Lawyer RPC provisions, such as Lawyer as Witness in Rule 3.7 and the Special Responsibilities of a Prosecutor in Rule 3.8, do not apply to LLLTs.
In these instances, the corresponding LLLT RPC has been reserved. Rules 3.6 and 3.9 represent

LLLT RPC 4.2 COMMUNICATION WITH PERSON REPRESENTED BY LAWYER

- 5 Comment

[1] A person who has chosen to be represented by a lawyer should be protected against 6 possible overreaching by another lawyer. See Lawyer RPC 4.2 and Comments to that rule. Rule 7 4.2 extends to LLLTs the prohibition on communicating with a person represented by a lawyer. 8 This Rule differs from Lawyer RPC 4.2 in that the prohibition is absolute. While a lawyer may 9 be permitted to communicate directly with a person who is represented by another lawyer with 10 the other lawyer's consent, or if authorized to do so by law or court order, there are no exceptions 11 12 to the prohibition as it applies to LLLTs, because any such communication would put an LLLT in a position of exceeding the authorized scope of the LLLT's practice under APR 28(H). 13 Specifically, APR 28(H)(6) prohibits negotiating a client's legal-rights or responsibilities or 14 communicating with another person the client's position, and APR 28(H)(5) prohibits an LLLT 15 from representing a client in court proceedings. In light of these limitations, there is no 16 circumstance in which an LLLT could communicate with a person represented by a lawyer about 17 the subject matter of the representation without transgressing the APR. 18

19 LLLT RPC 4.3 DEALING WITH PERSON NOT REPRESENTED BY LAWYER

(a) In dealing on behalf of a client with a person who is not represented by a lawyer, an LLLT shall not state or imply that the LLLT is disinterested. When the LLLT knows or reasonably should know that the unrepresented person misunderstands the LLLT's role in the matter, the LLLT shall make reasonable efforts to correct the misunderstanding. The LLLT shall not give legal advice to an unrepresented person, other than the advice to secure the services of another legal practitioner, if the LLLT knows or reasonably should know that the interests of such a person are or have a reasonable possibility of being in conflict with the interests of the client.

(b) An LLLT shall not communicate about the subject of the representation with another party in the matter.

4 [1] TParagraph (a) of this Rule was adapted from Lawyer RPC 4.3 with no substantive
5 changes and applies to LLLTs analogously.

[2] [Reserved.] Paragraph (b) of this Rule does not appear in the Lawyer RPC. It derives from the limitations on the authorized scope of an LLLT's practice under APR 28(H)(6). See Comment [1] to Rule 4.2 for a discussion of the implications of APR 28(H)(6).

9 [3] The client of an LLLT is an unrepresented person for purposes of Lawyer RPC 4.2 and 10 4.3. The definition of an LLLT in APR 28(B)(4) clarifies that an LLLT does not represent a client 11 in court proceedings or negotiations, but provides limited legal assistance to a pro se client.

[4] Although an LLLT is strictly prohibited by paragraph (b) from communicating with a 12 party about the subject matter of the LLLT's representation, anAn LLLT may have occasion to 13 communicate directly with a nonparty who is assisted by another LLLT. A risk of unwarranted 14 intrusion into a privileged relationship may arise when an LLLT deals with a person who is 15 assisted by another LLLT. Client-LLLT communications, however, are privileged to the same 16 extent as client-lawyer communications. See APR 28(K)(3). An LLLT's ethical duty of 17 confidentiality further protects the LLLT client's right to confidentiality in that professional 18 relationship. See LLLT RPC 1.6(a). When dealing with a person who is assisted by another LLLT, 19 an LLLT must respect these legal rights that protect the client-LLLT relationship. 20

24	LLLT RPC 5.5 UNAUTHORIZED PRACTICE OF LAW
25	(a)	- (d) []	Unchanged.]
26	Comm	ent

[1] Lawyer RPC 5.5(a) expresses the basic prohibition on a legal practitioner practicing law in a jurisdiction where that individual is not specifically licensed or otherwise authorized to practice law. It reflects the general notion (enforced through criminal-legal prohibitions and other law) that legal services may only be provided by those licensed to do so. This limitation on the ability to practice law is designed to protect the public against the rendition of legal services by unqualified persons. See Comment [2] to Lawyer RPC 5.5.

As applied to LLLTs, this principle should apply with equal force. An actively licensed 7 LLLT should practice law as an LLLT only in a jurisdiction where he or she is licensed to do so, 8 i.e., Washington State. An LLLT must not practice law in a jurisdiction where he or she is not 9 authorized to do so. Unless and until other jurisdictions authorize Washington-licensed LLLTs 10 to practice law, it will be unethical under this Rule for the LLLT to provide or attempt to provide 11 legal services extraterritorially. Relatedly, it is unethical to assist anyone in activities that 12 constitute the unauthorized practice of law in any jurisdiction. See also APR 28(H)(76) 13 (prohibiting an LLLT from providing services to a client in connection with a legal matter in 14 another state unless permitted by the laws of that state to perform the services for the client).

Lawyer RPC 5.5(b) through (d) define the circumstances in which lawyers can practice in Washington despite being unlicensed here. For example, lawyers actively licensed elsewhere may provide services on a temporary basis in Washington in association with a lawyer admitted to practice here or when the lawyer's activities "arise out of or are reasonably related to the lawyer's practice in his or her home jurisdiction." These provisions also recognize that certain non-Washington-licensed lawyers may practice here on more than a temporary basis (e.g., lawyers providing services authorized by federal law), and otherwise prohibit non-Washingtonlicensed lawyers from establishing a systematic and continuous presence in Washington for the practice of law.

These provisions are, at this time, unnecessary in the LLLT RPC because there are no limited licenses programs-in other jurisdictions tantamount to Washington's LLLT rules and no

1	need to authorize nonlawyers limited license practitioners in other jurisdictions to practice law in
2	Washington, either temporarily or on an ongoing basis. For this reason, paragraphs (b) through
3	(d) are reserved.
