Announcements

Bar Lunches

On May 20, 2009, at the Wenatchee Golf and Country Club at noon the speaker will be Kathleen Kilcullen on "How Workers Comp & Social Security Have Run-ins with General Practice". WSBA's President, Mark Johnson, will be an additional speaker at the May 20, 2009, bar lunch. He has asked for ten minutes of our time to speak about his Civil Legal Aid Fund proposal. This will be the last bar lunch of my tenure. Meetings will start up again in September at locations and dates to be announced.

Practice Made Perfect Academy - Ann Guinn

As you may remember, I tried to get to get these workshops started in Wenatchee in the Fall but could not generate sufficient interest. Those of you who attended the April bar lunch had the opportunity to meet Ann Guinn and can evaluate how her workshops would benefit you. Those who did not attend the April bar lunch, should ask your colleagues about her presentations. The workshops will be the second Thursday afternoon of each month for three hours. The workshops focus on the issues that most directly impact revenues and profitability. The cost would be $149 per session. Some of the sessions would be eligible for CLE credit. Please contact Peggi Moxley at 662-2031 or PeggiMoxley@aol.com if you are interested. See attached.

Group Photo Taken May 15, 2009

The group photos taken on May 15, 2009, are attached to this newsletter, so that anyone can order copies in whatever size they desire and from whatever vendor they choose. Isn't technology wonderful? The attachment can be forwarded electronically to most vendors and then picked up at the store.

WSBA seeks an experienced Project Manager to manage our Home Foreclosure Legal Aid Project. rescue scams. The position is a one year, limited term, position that will coordinate and oversee the project goals. In collaboration with WSBA, the Northwest Justice Project is hiring an attorney and paralegal/legal assistant to carry out the intake, case assessment, and referral of appropriate cases to the volunteer attorneys recruited and trained for this project. ## Young Lawyers Division

New Board Members

After elections in early May, the new 2009-2010 YLD Board Members are: President Kevin Bromiley, President-Elect Ernest Radillo, Secretary Matt Marler, Treasurer Arianna Cozart, and Trustees Kristin Ferrera and Bryan Maroney. Congratulations to this great group of attorneys!

GAAP:

A big thank you to the attorneys who have already signed up to be on the GAAP registry! The YLD continues to build its registry of attorneys and needs your help! Remember that being on the registry does not obligate you to take any case. Rather, it provides us with a name and your practice areas so we can match it to client needs. Whether you take a case in full-or part- is up to you at the time you receive a referral. If you have any questions about GAAP, please call Shannon Feeney at 667-6213, Bryan Maroney at 662-3551, or Beth Wilcox at 663-3915. A sign up form is attached to the newsletter.

Upcoming Meetings:

New Board Members will take over at the next Board Meeting on June 3, 2009. The next YLD Social is at Bob's Classic on July 1, 2009, at 5:30. All are welcome! Please come and meet the new Board Members and share some spirits

Re: Greater Access and Assistance Project

Dear Counsel:

The Chelan-Douglas County Bar Association, Young Lawyers Division is in the process of commencing the Chelan-Douglas Counties Greater Access and Assistance Project (GAAP).

GAAP was envisioned originally by the Washington Young Lawyers Division in 1996 to serve clients who fall into a financial "gap" because they do not qualify for free legal services from organizations such as VAS, NWJP, or CLS, but yet cannot afford full-priced legal services from private practitioners. Under the GAAP model, the YLD's main role is to (1) maintain a registry of local attorneys willing to represent qualified applicants who fall into the financial "gap" at a reduced rate fee (estimated to be a maximum of $75 per hour); and (2) provide referrals for those qualified applicants to an attorney on the registry. The registry of attorneys would be categorized based on the area of practice the attorney is willing to provide services in. GAAP cases would vary and include family law, consumer and housing issues, bankruptcy, and employment security matters. Upon referral, other than the reduction in your fee rate, your representation of the GAAP client will be the same as for your non-GAAP clients.

We invite and encourage you to agree to represent these eligible, low-income clients on either a reduced-fee basis or as mentors providing guidance to those attorneys agreeing to be GAAP attorneys, or both!

The number of low-income people unable to afford legal representation is increasing at an alarming rate. Our hope is, with your help, to provide these people with better access to the judicial system, while providing you with an opportunity for public service.

If you are interested in participating in our GAAP panel, please complete the enclosed commitment form and either e-mail it to Bryan Maroney at Bryan@dcdkn.com or mail to Davis, Arneil Law Firm, LLP c/o Bryan Maroney, PO Box 2136, Wenatchee, WA 98801.
