Under the delegated authority of the Washington Supreme Court and consistent with the WSBA mission, the Diversity, Equity and Council's purpose is to advance diversity, equity and inclusion in the legal profession and legal system. Specifically, under Washington General Rule 12(1)(j), in regulating the practice of law, one of the Washington Supreme Court's objectives includes "diversity and inclusion among legal service providers and freedom from discrimination for those receiving legal services and in the justice system." Further, under Washington General Rule 12.2(6), the Washington Supreme Court has expressly delegated to the WSBA the responsibility to "promote diversity and equality in the courts and the legal profession." In addition to carrying out the objectives and responsibilities outlined in the General Rules and other commitments like the Washington Race and Equity Justice Initiative commitments, the Council also carries out the mission of the WSBA – 'to serve the public and the members of the Bar, to ensure the integrity of the legal profession, and to champion justice' – by advancing diversity, equity and inclusion in the legal profession and legal system.

The Council members help to advance WSBA's commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion in the legal profession and legal system through policy work, planning and participating in a variety of programming and activities and representing the DEI Council in the legal community.
