(f) Mediator Compensation. The parties shall pay the mediator’s reasonable fees unless a court order provides otherwise. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed by the parties, each party is responsible for his, her or its proportional share of the reasonable mediation fee. The court has authority to resolve in its discretion any fee dispute upon motion of any party, including the reasonableness of the mediation fee.

(g) Extension of Applicable Deadline for Specific Objectives. If any party in good faith believes that completion of specific discovery or exchange of specific information is necessary before mediation, and if that specific discovery or exchange of specific information is not likely to be completed within applicable deadlines, then that party may seek to extend the mediation deadline by raising the issue at the Initial Discovery Conference and incorporating the same into the Discovery Plan and Status Report. The court may extend an applicable deadline for mediation by a maximum of 60 days in such circumstances and incorporate any such extension into the Case Schedule. The availability of this extension is without prejudice to an extension of, or exemption from, any case schedule otherwise available.

(h) Sanctions for Failure to Comply. The court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, may impose an appropriate sanction on any party or attorney for refusal to participate in mediation or comply with any of the requirements of this rule, for willful delay in completing
