

Washington State Bar Association

Standards for Indigent Defense Services

[Revised February 04, 2026]

INTRODUCTION

The Washington State Bar Association Standards for Indigent Defense Services (WSBA Standards) reflect 50 years of work by national and state experts, practicing attorneys and public defense administrators. They establish the standards necessary to ensure legal representation for clients represented by a public defense attorney meets constitutional, statutory, and ethical requirements.

The WSBA Standards detail the minimum requirements for attorneys representing individual clients and for state and local administrators who “manage and oversee”¹ public defense services. The Washington State legislature, in RCW 10.101.030, requires counties and cities to adopt standards for the delivery of public defense services, regardless of whether public defense services are provided by contract, assigned counsel, or a public defender agency or nonprofit office. In doing so, RCW 10.101.030 provides that the WSBA Standards should serve as guidelines to local legislative authorities in adopting their standards.²

Compliance with these WSBA Standards ensures the consistent delivery of effective representation of individuals who face the loss of liberty or other protected rights. Ineffective representation can result in a wrongful criminal conviction or juvenile court adjudication, inappropriate civil commitment, or unlawful termination of parental rights. Compliance with these WSBA Standards protects the public, victims, state and other jurisdictions, as well as public defense attorneys.

The WSBA Standards are consistent with, but more comprehensive³ than, the Washington Supreme Court’s Standards for Indigent Defense that are included in the Washington State Court Rules⁴ and referred, hereafter, as the Court Rule Standards. All public defense attorneys must certify every quarter that they comply with the Court Rule Standards.⁵ The WSBA Standards also include “additional Standards beyond those required for certification as guidance for public defense attorneys in addressing issues identified in State v. A.N.J., 168 Wn.2d 91 (2010), including the suitability of contracts that public defense attorneys may negotiate and sign.”⁶

⁴ Specifically, CrR 3.1, CrRLJ 3.1, JuCR 9.2, and CCR 2.1.

⁵ The Preamble to the Supreme Court’s Court Rule Standards states: “To the extent that certain Standards may refer to or be interpreted as referring to local governments, the Court recognizes the authority of its Rules is limited to attorneys and the courts. Local courts and clerks are encouraged to develop protocols for procedures for receiving and retaining Certifications.”

⁶ Preamble to the Washington Supreme Court’s Standards for Indigent Defense.

In addition to compliance with both the WSBA and Court Rule Standards, public defense attorneys must comply with the Washington Rules of Professional Conduct (ethical requirements) and be familiar with and consider Performance Guidelines adopted by the WSBA and others for specific practice areas (adult criminal, juvenile court offender, family defense, civil commitment, and appeals).

DEFINITIONS

1. Assigned Counsel – Attorneys who provide public defense services in a local jurisdiction who are not employees of a Public Defense Agency, often without a formal contract; frequently referred to as panel or conflict attorneys.
2. Case – A “case” is a new court filing or action that names a person who is eligible for appointment of a public defense attorney; for example, an adult criminal charging instrument; a juvenile court offender or BECCA petition; a dependency, Title 13 guardianship, or termination of parental rights petition; a civil commitment petition; or an appeal. For additional explanation in relation to caseload capacity, refer to Standards 3.H and 3.I.
3. Case Weighting/Credits – A case weighting system assigns higher and lower values or weighted case credits to assigned cases based on the amount of time that is typically required to provide effective representation.
4. Caseload – The number of cases assigned to a public defense attorney in a 12-month period.
5. Co-counsel – An additional public defense attorney assigned to a case with the originally assigned attorney (lead counsel).
6. Defense Investigator – A non-lawyer legal professional who guides and executes the defense investigation of a client's case. Defense Investigators perform substantive work that requires full knowledge of court proceedings, court rules, and Washington State law. A Defense Investigator's review of case evidence requires an understanding of government investigative procedures and regulations, a familiarity with forensic disciplines, the aptitude to stay current with advancements in technology, and an ability to ascertain factual discrepancies. They may interview witnesses identified by the police investigation, as well as identify, locate, and interview witnesses unknown to the State. Defense Investigators may gather evidence useful to the defense by recording witness statements, conducting field investigations, photographing the crime scene, gathering records, and taking screenshots of online materials. A Defense Investigator's preservation of evidence is critical to trial preparations, as they can testify to lay the foundation for that evidence, as well as explain case details and assist with impeachment of witnesses. The use of a Defense Investigator is not limited to criminal cases. Defense Investigators are also important professionals in Dependency proceedings, Sexual Offender Commitment petitions, and other proceedings that affect a client's liberty or other constitutionally protected interest.
7. Experts – Individual persons, firms, or businesses who provide a high level of knowledge or skill in a particular subject matter, such as DNA or crime scene analyses, and assist public defense attorneys in providing legal representation for their client.
8. Family Defense – Family defense is the practice of representing all people statutorily and constitutionally entitled to legal representation in cases under RCW 13.34, 13.36, and 13.38, et seq.
9. Family Defense Social Worker or Family Defense Social Service Worker – A family defense professional with a degree in Social Work (or allied field) who provides professional services to assist the attorney and to help meet the basic and complex needs of the client. At the discretion of the agency or firm, individuals without a degree in Social Work (or other field), but who can demonstrate lived or professional experience in the dependency system may serve the same role with the title of “Family Defense Social Service Worker.”

10. Flat Fee Agreement – A contract or informal policy agreement where a private attorney or firm agrees to handle an unlimited number of cases for a single flat fee.
11. Fully Supported Defense Attorneys – Public defense attorneys who meet or exceed Standards Four, Five, Six, Seven, Nine, Ten, Thirteen and Fourteen of these Standards.
12. Jurisdictions – State, county and city entities that provide public defense services.
13. Legal Assistant – A non-lawyer legal professional who assists the attorney with administrative tasks. Legal Assistants often are responsible for filing pleadings generated by the lawyer or paralegal and ensuring the timely processing of mail and legal documents to meet court mandated deadlines. They may answer phones and assist with communications between the defense team, clients, defense experts, witnesses, and others. Some Legal Assistants are responsible for calendaring, opening and closing case files, updating case management systems, processing legal discovery (electronic or otherwise), and ensuring that critical information is accurately conveyed and recorded, if needed.
14. Lead Counsel – A lead counsel is the main lawyer in charge of a case. They are usually the most experienced and manage any other lawyers working on the case.
15. Mitigation Specialist – A mental health professional, a social worker, or social services provider, with specialized training or experience who gathers biographical, medical, and family history of the client to assist the lawyer, including preparing a document to inform the court and/or prosecutor or State of factors in the client’s life. Mitigation Specialists also help clients navigate social service support and prepare for assessments.
16. Open Caseload – The number of assigned cases a public defender has that are actively open. Open Caseload is a day-in-time snapshot of a public defender’s caseload; whereas, “Caseload” is the number of assigned cases in a year.
17. Paralegal – A non-lawyer legal professional, frequently a graduate of an ABA-approved Paralegal Studies program, who does substantive work that requires familiarity with court proceedings, court rules, and Washington State law. Paralegals are frequently responsible for performing complex legal research and drafting legal documents such as subpoenas, pleadings, and motions and creating discovery binders, preparing exhibits, coordinating witness schedules, and assisting with organization at counsel table. Paralegals may assist the attorney with client communication and act as a liaison with defense experts, prosecutors, bailiffs, and jail officials. They also may track upcoming court hearings, trial dates, and other critical timelines to help with attorney organization.
18. Per Case Agreement – A contract or informal policy agreement where a private attorney or firm agrees to handle cases on a flat, per case amount.
19. Private Attorneys – An attorney who works in private practice who provides public defense services whether by contract, subcontract, assignment, appointment, or other process.
20. Private Firm – For-profit law firm that provides public defense services, whether by contract, subcontract, assignment, appointment, or other process.

21. Public Defender – Any person working as or with a public defense attorney, firm, or public defense agency whether an attorney, social worker, office administrator, investigator, mitigation specialist, paralegal, legal assistant, human resources specialist, data analyst, etc.
22. Public Defense Administrator – Person, whether attorney or not, who is responsible overall for the administration, management, and oversight of public defense.
23. Public Defense Agency – Government and nonprofit offices that only provide public defense representation.
24. Public Defense Attorney – A private attorney, attorney working in a private firm, or an attorney working in a public defense agency who is assigned to represent individuals who are indigent or indigent and able to contribute and have a statutory or constitutional right to court-assigned counsel.
25. Reasonable Compensation – Market rate for similar legal and expert services. Reasonable compensation includes more than attorney wages, salary, benefits, contract payments or hourly rate payments. Reasonable Compensation includes the cost of office overhead (including administrative costs), support staff or services, training, supervision, and other services not separately funded.
26. Significant Portion of a Trial – Planning or participating in essential aspects of a trial which includes, but is not limited to, motions in limine, jury selection, opening statements, direct and cross examination, motions and objections, preparation of and advocacy for jury instructions, and closing arguments.
27. Social Worker – A public defense professional with a master’s degree in Social Work who provides professional services to assist the attorney and to help meet the basic and complex needs of the client. Often, this can involve enrolling in health care or other government support services.
28. Trial Academy – An organized trial training program of at least 20 hours of sessions that is presented by the Washington State Office of Public Defense, the Washington Defender Association, the Washington Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys, the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, the National Institute for Trial Advocacy, the National Association for Public Defense, the Gault Center, the National Criminal Defense College, Gideon’s Promise, or any other organization approved for CLE training by the Washington State Bar Association. A trial academy must include defender skills training that may encompass motion practice, opening and closing statements, objections, preserving issues for appeal, direct and cross examination, race bias, client communication, theory of the case, jury selection, and other topics.
29. Workload – The amount of work a public defense attorney has, including direct client representation and work not directly attributable to the representation of a specific client, including, for example, administration, supervision, and professional development.

STANDARD ONE: Compensation

Standard:

1.A. Public Defense Agency Salaries and Benefits.

Employees at public defense agencies shall be compensated at a rate commensurate with their training and experience. Compensation and benefit levels shall be comparable to those of attorneys and staff in prosecution or other opposing party offices in the area. Compensation shall also include necessary administrative costs described in Standard Five, support services costs described in Standard Seven, and training and supervision costs described in Standards Nine and Ten.

1.B. Contract and Assigned Counsel Compensation.

Compensation for public defense attorneys in contract and assigned counsel systems shall reflect the professional experience, time, and labor required for effective and quality representation. Compensation shall also be based on the comparable compensation and benefits associated with prosecution or other opposing party offices in the area. Compensation shall also include necessary administrative costs described in Standard Five, support services costs described in Standard Seven, and training and supervision costs described in Standards Nine and Ten.

Reasonable compensation shall be provided whether the work is for full-time or part-time public defense attorneys. Reasonable contract or assigned counsel compensation rates shall be set at least on a pro rata basis consistent with the attorney's percentage of a full caseload (see Standard 3). For example, if a jurisdiction allocates $280,000 per year per full-time equivalent (FTE) prosecuting attorney for all costs associated with that FTE, including but not limited to combined salary, benefits, support staff, administrative, information technology, insurance, bar dues, training, and facilities expenses, then a contract for one-fourth of a full-time public defense caseload should be at least $70,000.

Contracts and government budgets shall recognize the need to provide reasonable compensation for all public defense attorneys, including but not limited to, those attorneys who are "on call," staff court calendars, or staff specialty or therapeutic courts.

1.C. Flat Fee and Per Case Compensation Agreements.

Attorneys shall not engage in flat fee or per case compensation contracts or agreements. These compensation structures create an actual conflict for the public defense attorney.⁷

Consistent with Washington Rule of Professional Conduct 1.8(m)(1)(ii), public defense attorneys shall not make or participate in making an agreement with a governmental entity for the delivery of indigent defense services if the terms of the agreement obligate the contracting lawyer or law firm to bear the cost of providing investigation or expert services, unless a fair and reasonable amount for such costs is specifically designated in the agreement in a manner that does not adversely affect the income or compensation allocated to the lawyer, law firm, or law firm personnel.

1.D. Additional Compensation.

Consistent with RCW 10.101.060(1)(a)(iv), contracts and policies shall provide for additional compensation over and above the base contract amount(s) for cases that require an extraordinary amount of time and preparation.

⁷ "Counsel should not be paid on a flat fee basis, as such payment structures reward counsel for doing as little work as possible." ABA Ten Principles of a Public Defense Delivery System, Principle 2: Funding, Structure, and Oversight, n. 6 (August 2023) (citing Wilbur v. Mt. Vernon, No. C11-1100RSL, U.S.D.C. D. Wash., at 15 (Dec. 4, 2013) (district court finding that a flat fee contract "left the defenders compensated at such a paltry level that even a brief meeting at the outset of the representation would likely make the venture unprofitable."))

Situations that require additional compensation include, but are not limited to:

- Days spent in trial, if no per diem is paid
- Testimonial motion hearings
- Interpreter cases
- Cases involving mental health competency and other issues (RCW 10.77)
- Cases with extensive discovery
- Cases that involve a significant number of counts, alleged victims or witnesses
- Cases requiring consultation with experts, including, for example, immigration legal analysis and advice or DNA testing and analysis.

Attorneys should have the opportunity to submit requests for additional compensation for extraordinary cases and the right to appeal an adverse decision to a judicial officer.

1.E. Substitute Attorney Costs.

Consistent with Washington Rule of Professional Conduct 1.8(m)(1)(i), attorneys who have a conflict of interest shall not be required to bear the cost of the new, substituted attorney.

STANDARD TWO: Duties and Responsibilities of Counsel

Standard:

Jurisdictions that administer public defense services shall ensure that representation be provided in all situations in which the right to counsel attaches, including first appearances and bail decisions, as well as plea negotiations.

Representation shall be prompt and delivered in a professional, skilled manner consistent with minimum standards set forth by these WSBA Standards, the Washington Supreme Court's Court Rule Standards (CrR 3.1, CrRLJ 3.1, JuCR 9.2, and CCR 2.1), the American Bar Association, the Washington Rules of Professional Conduct, case law and relevant court rules and orders defining the duties of counsel. The applicable WSBA or ABA Performance Guidelines should serve as guidance for attorney performance. The most fundamental responsibility of jurisdictions and public defense attorneys is to promote and protect the stated interests of public defense clients.

STANDARD THREE: Caseload Limits and Types of Cases

Standard:

3.A. The contract or other employment agreement or government budget shall specify the types of cases for which representation shall be provided and the maximum number and types of cases in which each attorney shall be expected to provide quality representation.

3.B. Quality Representation.

The maximum caseload or workload of public defense attorneys shall allow each attorney to give each client the time and effort necessary to ensure effective representation. Public defense attorneys should not enter into contracts requiring caseloads or workloads that, by reason of their excessive size, interfere with the rendering of quality representation. If the attorney's caseload or workload prevents providing quality representation,⁸ public defense attorneys shall take steps to reduce their caseload, including but not limited to seeking co-counsel, reassignment of cases, or requesting a partial or complete stop to additional case assignments or requesting withdrawal from a case(s). If the attorney's workload is within the limits in this standard there is a presumption that they can provide quality representation.

If a public defense agency or nonprofit's workload exceeds the Director's capacity to provide counsel for newly assigned cases, the Director must notify courts and appointing authorities that the provider is unavailable to accept additional assignments and must decline to accept additional cases.⁹

3.C. Open Caseload.

The determination of an attorney's ability to accept new case assignments must include an assessment of the impact of their open caseload on their ability to provide quality representation.

3.D. Fully Supported, Full-Time Public Defense Attorneys.

The maximum caseloads or workloads for public defense attorneys assume an attorney's public defense work is: 1) full-time (exclusively public defense); 2) fully supported; 3) for cases of average complexity and effort for each case type specified; and 4) reasonably evenly distributed throughout the year. "Fully supported, full-time defense attorneys" are attorneys who meet or exceed Standards Four, Five, Six, Seven, Nine, Ten, Thirteen and Fourteen of these Standards.

3.E. Mix of Case Types and Private Practice.

If a public defense attorney accepts appointment to cases from more than one case type, this standard should be applied proportionately to determine a maximum full caseload.

Attorneys should not accept more public defense cases than the percentage of time their other work and commitments allow. The number of public defense cases or case credits should be based on the percentage of time available for the attorney to represent public defense clients. Each individual or organization that contracts to perform public defense services for a county or city shall report to the county or city hours billed for nonpublic defense legal services in the previous calendar year, including number and types of private cases.¹⁰

3.F. Attorney Experience.

⁸ The American Bar Association's Ethics Opinion 06-441 states in part:

If workload prevents a lawyer from providing competent and diligent representation to existing clients, she must not accept new clients. If the clients are being assigned through a court appointment system, the lawyer should request that the court not make any new appointments. Once the lawyer is representing a client, the lawyer must move to withdraw from representation if she cannot provide competent and diligent representation.

⁹ See, ABA Eight Guidelines of Public Defense Related to Excessive Workloads, Guidelines 1, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 (August 2009).

The experience of a particular attorney is a factor in the composition of case types in the attorney's caseload, but it is not a factor in adjusting the applicable numerical caseload limits except as follows: attorneys with less than six months of full-time public defense experience as an attorney should not be assigned more than two-thirds of the applicable maximum numerical caseload limit.

3.G. Impact of Public Defense Time Other Than Case Appointments.

Assessing an attorney's maximum caseload or workload limit must include accounting for work in addition to new cases assigned. Time spent on vacation, sick leave, holidays, training, supervision, administrative duties, and court improvement work groups must also be accounted for.

3.H. Definition of case.

A "case" is a new court filing or action that names a person who is eligible for appointment of a public defense attorney; for example; an adult criminal charging instrument; a juvenile court offender or BECCA petition; a dependency, Title 13 guardianship, or termination of parental rights petition; a civil commitment petition; or an appeal.

3.I. Adult Criminal and Juvenile Court Offender Trial Court Cases

1. Adult Criminal and Juvenile Court Offender Cases.

- a. An attorney appointed to an Adult Criminal or Juvenile Court Offender case receives the case weight/credit or hours credit toward the attorney's annual caseload that is listed in Standard 3.J. and in Appendix B. In multi-count cases, the charge with the highest case category dictates the case's credit or hourly value. If the highest charge is amended or otherwise changed to a charge that is more serious than originally charged, the attorney(s) shall receive the additional case credit value. In the event a charge is amended to a less serious charge, the attorney shall still be given caseload credit for the original, higher charge as of the time the attorney was appointed to the case.
 - b. A charging document filed against a client arising out of a single event or series of events and being prosecuted together is presumed to be one case. Determining whether a case number is one or multiple cases is determined by the supervisor or appointing agency after reviewing the charging information, amended charging documents, or an order to sever counts.
2. Reappointment. Reappointment of the previously appointed attorney to a case in which a bench warrant was issued does not count as a new case if the warrant was issued within the twelve months prior to the reappointment. New case credits can be awarded as approved by a supervisor or appointment authority on a case-by-case basis.
 3. Partial Representation. The following must be taken into account when assessing an attorney's numerical caseload or when adjusting case credits assigned to attorney: partial case representations (cases in which an attorney withdraws or is substituted pursuant to CrR 3.1(e) and CrRLJ 3.1(e)), sentence or probation violations, cases in specialty or therapeutic courts, transfers, extraditions, representations of material witnesses, pretrial advice including "on-call" availability, petitions for conditional release or final discharge, and other matters that do not involve a new criminal charge. Time spent by attorneys representing multiple clients on first appearance, arraignment, or other calendaring hearings must be accounted for in reducing the number of maximum trial cases that can be assigned.

- a. Transferred Case. When a public defense attorney's representation ends prior to the entry of a final order or judgment (for example, attorney withdrawal pursuant to CrR 3.1(e) or CrRLJ 3.1(e)), the supervising attorney or appointing authority shall determine the case credit value to be awarded to each attorney based on the amount of time each attorney contributes.
 - b. Co-Chairs. When two or more lawyers are assigned as co-chairs, the supervising attorney or appointing authority shall determine the case credit value to be awarded to each attorney based on the amount of time each attorney contributes, including mentoring by the non-supervisor lead counsel.
 - c. Transferred and Co-Chaired cases frequently take more time to complete than the average case. Additional credits may need to be applied. For the case category Felony High-Murder and Felony High-LWOP case types, there is a presumption that two or more lawyers will be assigned as co-chairs.
 - d. Court Calendar Positions.
 - i. Specialty or Therapeutic Courts: a criminal case resulting in admission to a Specialty or Therapeutic Court generally should not count as a case for the attorney covering the Specialty or Therapeutic Court. The case credit shall be applied exclusively to the originally assigned attorney(s) prior to the transfer into a Specialty or Therapeutic Court.
 - ii. Calendar Coverage: A criminal case appearing on a calendar where an attorney provides partial representation with no expectation of additional representation after the initial hearing shall not count as a case for the attorney covering the court calendar. This partial representation can include but is not limited to representing clients on: probable cause or first appearance calendars; arraignment calendars; failures to appear, warrant return, quash, and recommencement of proceedings calendars; preliminary appointments in cases in which no charges are filed; extradition calendars; and other matters or representations of clients that do not involve new criminal charges.
 - iii. Court Calendar Attorney Time: The workload of Specialty and Therapeutic Court attorneys and attorneys designated, appointed, or contracted to represent groups of clients on a court docket, without an expectation of further or continuing representation, shall be assessed and subtracted from the annual, assumed 1,650 hours monitored by the supervising attorney or appointing authority to ensure the attorney does not work more than 1,650 caseload hours in a 12-month period.
4. Probation Violation Cases. Appointment of a public defense attorney to represent a person on one or more original case numbers where a probation violation(s) or show cause order(s) has been filed is presumed to count as 1/3 credit of the Felony or Misdemeanor Case Credit. Additional case credits can be awarded as approved by a supervisor or appointing authority on a case-by-case basis.

3.J. Maximum Case Credit Limit for Adult Criminal and Juvenile Court Offender Cases Each Year.

This Section shall be implemented according to the schedule in Section 3.O.

The maximum number of case credits for a fully supported, full-time public defense attorney each calendar year is based on an assumed 1650-hour “case-related hours” available each year. This number represents the assumed time an attorney in Washington has available each year to devote to public defense clients’ representation. It excludes annual time for leave (for example, vacation, sick, PTO, FMLA) holidays, CLEs and training, supervision, and other time that is not “case-related”).¹¹

The maximum annual caseload case credits for each category of Adult Criminal and Juvenile Court Offender cases are based on the National Public Defense Workload Study (Sept. 2023).¹²

The maximum annual caseload for a full-time felony attorney is 47 case credits.

Case credits for each Felony case category appointment shall be as follows (see Appendix B for case types falling within each category):

Felony High-LWOP: ¹³	8
Felony High-Murder:	7
Felony High-Sex:	5
Felony High:	3
Felony Mid:	1.5
Felony Low:	1

The maximum annual caseload for a full-time misdemeanor attorney is 120 case credits.

Case credits for each Misdemeanor case category appointment shall be as follows:

Misdemeanor High:	1.5
Misdemeanor Low:	1

If a case resolves relatively quickly, before an attorney has done significant work on the matter, the attorney will be credited with a proportional, reduced amount of the credits initially assigned.

¹¹ See Nicholas M. Pace, Malia N. Brink, Cynthia G. Lee, Stephen F. Hanlon, National Public Defense Workload Study Research Report, 99 (Sept. 2023) (hereinafter NPDWS). In addition, the Washington Defender Association Indigent Defense Standards (1989) states: “An accepted standard for attorneys is to work 1650 billable hours per year.” https://defensenet.org/wp-content/uploads/2017/12/Final-2007-WDA-Standards-with-Commentary_18.12.06.pdf. Similarly, a study for the Massachusetts Committee for Public Counsel Services determined that an appropriate number of hours to spend directly representing clients per year is 1,662 hours, after deducting holidays, vacation time, training, and non-case duties. ¹² NPDWS, at 85.

¹³ Felony High-LWOP does not apply to Juvenile Court Offender cases.

3.K. Other Case Types.¹⁴

Appeals: 25 appeals to an appellate court hearing a case on the record and briefs per attorney per year. (The 25 standard assumes experienced appellate attorneys handling cases with transcripts of an average length of 350 pages. If attorneys do not have significant appellate experience and/or the average transcript length is greater than 350 pages, the caseload should be accordingly reduced.)

Family Defense: Family defense attorneys shall not represent more than 35 family defense clients or carry more than 40 open and active family defense cases at any given time. State agencies responsible for administering family defense representation may adopt case weighting standards not inconsistent with these standards. A supervising attorney assigned as co-counsel may count that client or case towards their total under this rule.

Civil Commitment: 250 Civil Commitment cases per attorney per year.

3.L. Additional Considerations.

1. Caseload limits require a reasonably even number of case appointments each month, based on the number of cases appointed in prior months.
2. Resolutions of cases by pleas of guilty to criminal charges on a first appearance or arraignment docket are presumed to be rare occurrences requiring careful evaluation of the evidence and the law, as well as thorough communication with clients, and must be counted as one case.

3.M. Full-Time Rule 9 Interns.

Rule 9 interns who have not graduated from law school may not have caseloads or workloads that exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the maximum limits established for full-time attorneys.

3.N. Attorneys in Jurisdictions that Do Not Follow Case Credit System in Standard 3.J.

Attorneys in jurisdictions that do not use the case credit system in Standard 3.J. shall be employed by, contract with, or be appointed by the local government entity responsible for those functions only if the jurisdiction has adopted and published a numerical caseload or workload maximum that is consistent with the caseload and workload limits set in Standard 3.J. Such a caseload or workload maximum must:

- a) Recognize the greater or lesser workload required for cases compared to an average based on a method that adequately assesses and documents the workload involved;
- b) Be consistent with these Standards, professional performance guidelines, and the Rules of Professional Conduct;
- c) Not institutionalize systems or practices that fail to allow adequate attorney time for competent and diligent representation;
- d) Be periodically reviewed and updated to reflect current workloads; and be filed with the State of Washington Office of Public Defense.

3.O. Implementation of Standards.

¹⁴ The standards under this subsection, with the exception of family defense caseload standards, are under review. To provide guidance in the interim, the prior standards are included only until revisions are approved.

Standard 3 shall be implemented in phases and shall go into effect on July 2, 2025, with the exception of the paragraph of Standard 3.K applicable to appellate caseloads, which shall go into effect upon adoption by the WSBA Board of Governors. The 2024 revisions to these Indigent Defense Standards shall be implemented on the following schedule:

Until July 2, 2025, the caseload standards as adopted in pre-existing WSBA Standards of Indigent Defense Services and Court Rule Standards of Indigent Defense shall apply: The caseload of a full-time public defense attorney or assigned counsel shall not exceed the following:

150 Felonies per attorney per year;

300 Misdemeanor cases per attorney per year or, in jurisdictions that have not adopted a numerical case weighting system as described in this Standard, 400 cases per year;

250 Juvenile Offender cases per attorney per year.

Phase 1:

Beginning July 2, 2025, within the twelve months following, each full-time felony attorney shall be assigned cases constituting no more than 110 felony case credits and each full-time misdemeanor attorney shall be assigned cases constituting no more than 280 misdemeanor case credits. Beginning July 2, 2025, family defense attorneys shall not represent more than 45 family defense clients or carry more than 60 open and active cases at any given time.

Phase 2:

Beginning July 2, 2026, within the twelve months following, each full-time felony attorney shall be assigned cases constituting no more than 90 felony case credits and each full-time misdemeanor attorney shall be assigned cases constituting no more than 225 misdemeanor case credits. Beginning July 2, 2026, family defense attorneys shall not represent more than 35 family defense clients or carry more than 40 open and active cases at any given time.

Phase 3:

Beginning July 2, 2027, and for any twelve-month period following, each full-time felony attorney shall be assigned cases constituting no more than 47 felony case credits and each full-time misdemeanor attorney shall be assigned cases constituting no more than 120 misdemeanor case credits.

STANDARD FOUR: Responsibility for Expert Witnesses

Standard:

4.A. Expert Witnesses

Jurisdictions that administer public defense services shall provide reasonable compensation for expert witnesses necessary for preparation and presentation of the case. Expert witness costs should be maintained and allocated from funds separate from those provided for attorney legal representation.

Jurisdictions shall adopt and publish procedures to confidentially receive, review, and grant requests for expert witness services. In jurisdictions where attorneys are required to request approval for expert witnesses or other necessary services from the court, such motions shall be ex parte and include a motion to seal. Public defense agencies shall make meaningful progress towards this ratio prior to July 3, 2028.¹⁵ Attorneys representing clients in post-adjudication phases may require different resources. Public defense agencies that do not employ a sufficient number of mitigation specialists or social workers to meet this ratio shall enter into contracts with additional mitigation specialists or social workers to provide the same resource level.

For public defense agencies responsible for administering the funding for parent representation, by July 3, 2028, a minimum of one full-time family defense social worker or family defense social service worker shall be provided for every one full-time attorney representing parents in family defense proceedings, on a pro rata basis according to the size of the contract. Public defense agencies responsible for administering the funding for parent's defense shall make meaningful progress towards the ratio of one full-time family defense social worker or family defense social service worker for every one full-time parent's defense attorney prior to July 3, 2028. Public defense agencies responsible for administering the funding for child and youth representation shall ensure that adequate social work support services are made available to meet the case and support needs of children and youth in family defense cases.

Temporary reductions in agency staff because of illness, disability, or reasonable delay in filling vacancies do not constitute failure to comply with this standard. Attorneys representing clients in post-adjudication phases may require different resources.

Public defense attorneys under contract or in assigned counsel systems should have access to mitigation specialists and social workers, consistent with 4.A.

4.C. Mental Health Professionals for Evaluations

These costs include, but are not limited to, travel, telephones, law library, including electronic legal research, electronic document filing, financial accounting, case management systems, legal system databases and programs, computers and software, equipment, office space and supplies, internet services, training, and other costs necessarily incurred for public defense representation and necessary to comply with the requirements imposed by these standards.

Providing for these costs is necessary for all public defense structures, including agency, contract, and assigned counsel systems.

Administrative costs for contract and assigned counsel services shall be included in compensation rates and agreements.

5.B. Law Offices Must Accommodate Confidential, Prompt, and Consistent Client Communication

All public defense attorneys shall have access to an office that accommodates confidential meetings with clients and receipt of mail, and adequate telephone and electronic services to ensure prompt response to client contact. Public defense attorneys and clients must have prompt and consistent access to interpreter services.

STANDARD SIX: Investigators

Standard:

6.A. Access to Investigation Services

Public defense representation must include access to investigation services. Public defense-led investigation is necessary for representing clients for purposes of verifying facts, identifying and questioning witnesses, and testing the evidence presented by the opposing party.

6.B. Investigation for Public Defense Agencies

¹⁶ See, RPC 1.4 "Communication."

In public defense agencies, by July 3, 2028, a minimum of one full-time investigator shall be employed for every three full-time trial court level (adult and/or juvenile) attorneys.¹⁷ Public defense agencies shall make meaningful progress towards this ratio prior to July 3, 2028. Public defense agencies that do not employ a sufficient number of investigators to meet this ratio shall enter into contracts with additional investigators to provide the stated resource level. Temporary reductions in agency staff because of illness, disability, or reasonable delay in filling vacancies do not constitute failure to comply with this standard. Attorneys representing clients in post-adjudication phases may require different investigation resources.

6.C. Investigation for Contract and Assigned Counsel

When public defense attorneys work under contracts or assigned counsel systems, jurisdictions must ensure that they have the same level of access to investigators as described in 6.B. Local jurisdictions shall adopt and publish confidential procedures to receive, review, and grant requests for investigation services. In jurisdictions where attorneys are required to request court approval for investigative services, such motions shall be ex parte, consistent with the requirements of Washington Rule of Professional Conduct 1.8(m)(1)(ii) and court rules.

6.D. Investigation for Pro Se Litigants

All jurisdictions should make conflict free investigation services available to indigent defendants or respondents who are representing themselves in all cases in which the court has approved waiver of their right to court-appointed counsel.

6.E. Cost of Investigation Services

Consistent with Washington Rule of Professional Conduct 1.8(m)(1)(ii), attorneys shall not be required to bear the costs of investigation services.

STANDARD SEVEN: Support Services

Standard:

7.A. Support Services Necessary for Legal Defense

In addition to the necessary resources described in Standards Four, Five, and Six, public defense attorneys shall have adequate legal and administrative support. Legal and administrative support services include, but are not limited to, administrative assistants, legal assistants, paralegals, human resources, finance, reception services, and IT and data management administrators. These professionals are essential for effective legal defense and an operational law office. Jurisdictions shall ensure all public defense attorneys have access to needed support services as provided in this Standard and as required by Washington Rule of Professional Conduct 1.4 to ensure attorney/client communication.

¹⁷ National Association of Public Defense Policy Statement on Public Defense Staffing (May 2020): “Until empirical studies are further able to determine the number of staff necessary to support the lawyer, public defense systems, at a minimum, should provide, one investigator for every three lawyers, one mental health professional, often a social worker, for every three lawyers, and one supervisor for every 10 litigators. Additionally, there should be one paralegal and one administrative assistant for every 4 lawyers.”

7.B. Providing for Support Services in Contract and Assigned Counsel Compensation

7.C. Necessary Legal Assistants/Paralegals Ratio

In public defense agencies, by July 3, 2028, a minimum of one full-time legal assistant or paralegal shall be employed for every four full-time attorneys. Public defense agencies shall make meaningful progress towards this ratio prior to July 3, 2028.

Public defense agencies that do not employ a sufficient number of legal assistants or paralegals to meet this ratio should enter into contracts with qualified professionals to provide the same resource level or request authorization of such services ex parte or administratively.

Temporary reductions in agency staff because of illness, disability, or reasonable delay in filling vacancies do not constitute failure to comply with this standard. Attorneys representing clients in post-adjudication phases may require different resources.

STANDARD EIGHT: Reports of Attorney Activity

Standard:

Jurisdictions and family defense contracting agencies shall require all public defense attorneys to use a case-reporting and management information system that includes the number and types of assigned cases, attorney hours, and case dispositions. Data from these systems should be routinely reported to public defense administrators in a manner in which confidential, secret, and otherwise non-public information are not disclosed. Consistent with Standard Eleven, public defense administrators should review these reports on a regular basis to monitor compliance with these Standards.

For attorneys under contract, payment should be made monthly, or at times agreed to by the parties, without regard to the number of cases closed in the period.

STANDARD NINE: Training

Standard:

9.A. Annual Training

All public defense attorneys shall participate in regular training, including a minimum of seven hours of continuing legal education annually in areas relating to their public defense practice. Training should include relevant topics including training specific to certain case types as required in Standard Fourteen, the types of cases assigned (for example, criminal, dependency, appellate), racial and ethnic disparities, elimination of bias, mental illnesses, improved and effective communication with clients, forensic sciences, and other topics that impact legal representation. Every public defense attorney should attend training that fosters trial or appellate advocacy skills and review professional publications and other media.

9.B. Onboarding and Training of New and Current Attorneys

Public defense agencies and contracted private law firms should develop their own practices and procedures to onboard and train new attorneys. Offices should develop written materials (e.g. manuals, checklists, hyperlinked resources) to inform new attorneys of local rules and procedures of the courts in their jurisdiction.

In offices of more than seven attorneys, an orientation and training program for new attorneys and legal interns should be held to inform them of office procedures and policies. All attorneys should be required to attend regular in-house training programs on developments in their legal representation areas.

9.C Continuing Education for Public Defense Non-Attorneys

Funding for training for all public defense non-attorneys must be provided. A fully supported public defense attorney is one whose staff and expert service providers receive educational opportunities and up-to-date trainings to ensure they can meet their profession's best practices. This may include attendance at national conferences and regular access to online trainings, such as those offered by the Washington State Office of Public Defense, Washington Defender Association, the National Association for Public Defense, the National Legal Aid and Defender Association, the National Alliance of Sentencing Advocates and Mitigation Specialists, the National Defense Investigator Association, the National Federation of Paralegal Associations, and the National Association for Legal Support Professionals.

Part-time supervisors should limit their caseloads on a pro-rata basis. Supervisors should have training in personnel management and supervision. Supervisors should be qualified under Standard 14 for the practice area(s) they are supervising.

10.B. Supervision for Family Defense Representation

STANDARD ELEVEN: Monitoring and Evaluation of Attorneys

Standard:

All jurisdictions shall provide a mechanism for systematic monitoring of public defense attorneys and their caseloads and ensure timely review and evaluation of public defense services. Monitoring and evaluation should include, but not be limited to, review of reports submitted per Standard Eight, review of time and caseload assignments, in-court observations, periodic conferences, verification of attorney compliance with Standard Nine training requirements, verification of compliance with Certifications of Compliance with the Supreme Court's Court Rule Standards, and management of client complaints, consistent with Standard Fifteen.

Attorneys should be evaluated on their skill and effectiveness as advocates, including their communication with clients.

STANDARD TWELVE: Substitution of Counsel

Standard:

12.A. Availability at No Cost to Attorney.

Consistent with Standard 1.E, alternate or conflict public defense attorneys shall be available for substitution in conflict situations at no cost to the attorney declaring the conflict.

In contract and assigned counsel systems, the public defense administrator should receive the names and experience levels of those attorneys who will be and actually are providing the legal representation, to ensure the attorneys meet the minimum qualifications required by Standard 14.

12.D. Continuing Representation and Client Files.

Public defense contracts and assigned counsel policies shall address the procedures for continuing representation of clients upon the conclusion of the contract or case assignment. Public defense contracts and assigned counsel policies shall include which attorney or firm or public defense office is responsible for maintaining client files confidentially when a contract terminates or case assignment ends.¹⁸

15.B. Public defense agencies and contractors with multi-attorney private firms shall include investigation and disposition of client complaints in their supervisory services.

15.C. The complaining client should be informed as to the disposition of their complaint in a timely manner.

STANDARD SIXTEEN: Cause for Termination of Defender Services and Removal of Attorney

Standard:

Contracts for public defense services shall include the grounds for termination of the contract by the parties. Termination of a public defense attorney's or private firm's contract unilaterally by the jurisdiction should only be for good cause. Termination for good cause shall include, but not be limited to, the failure of a contract attorney or firm to provide effective or quality representation to clients; the willful disregard of the rights and best interests of the client; and the willful disregard of these WSBA Standards or the Court Rule Standards.

STANDARD SEVENTEEN: Non-Discrimination

Standard:

Public defense contracts and assigned counsel policies shall include language prohibiting discrimination by the jurisdiction, contractor, contractor's attorneys, or assigned counsel on the grounds of race, ethnicity, religion, national origin, language, age, marital status, gender identity, sexual orientation, or disability. Under no circumstances should a contract be awarded on the basis of cost alone.

Judges, judicial staff, city attorneys, county prosecutors, and law enforcement officers shall not select the attorneys who will be included in a contract or an assigned counsel list.

(The WSBA Board of Governors adopted revisions to Standard 18 in May 2021)

STANDARD NINETEEN: Independence and Oversight of Public Defense Services²⁷

Standard:

²⁷ See Principle 1 of the ABA Ten Principles of a Public Defense Delivery System and Commentary (August 2023), including the recommendation a nonpartisan commission or advisory board oversee the public defense function, thus safeguarding against undue political pressure while also promoting efficiency and accountability for a publicly funded service.

Public defense providers should not be restrained from independently advocating for the resources and reforms necessary to provide defense related services for all clients. This includes efforts to foster system improvements, efficiencies, access to justice, and equity in the legal system.

Judges and judicial staff shall not manage and oversee public defense offices, public defense contracts, or assigned counsel lists. Judges and judicial staff in superior courts and courts of limited jurisdiction shall not select public defense administrators or the attorneys who provide public defense services.

Attorneys with public defense experience insulated from judicial and political influence should manage and oversee public defense services.

The terms “manage” and “oversee” include: drafting, awarding, renewing, and terminating public defense contracts; adding attorneys or removing them from assigned counsel lists; developing case weighting policies; monitoring attorney caseload limits and case-level qualifications; monitoring quality; monitoring compliance with contracts, policies, procedures, and standards; and recommending compensation.

The agencies, organizations, and administrators responsible for managing and overseeing public defense services shall apply these Standards, the Supreme Court Standards for Indigent Defense, and the WSBA Performance Guidelines in their management and oversight duties.

Jurisdictions unable to employ attorneys with public defense experience to manage and oversee public defense services shall consult with established city, county, or state public defense offices, or engage experienced public defense providers as consultants regarding management and oversight duties.
