Serious Fun, Deep Play

Join Kristen Lewis and Jennifer Wilhoit for a highly interactive, nature-based movement and creative reflection experience.

Along with your tasty beverage, please bring paper, pen, and your favorite nature object. Feel free to check your inhibitions at the door. All manner of comfy, loose clothing is welcome.

Kristen Lewis, JD is a dance artist, educator, and LLM candidate based in Turtle Island, B.C. She collaborates with author and spiritual ecologist Jennifer J. Wilhoit, PhD of Bainbridge Island, WA in producing inspiring activities for diverse audiences, including legal and dispute resolution professionals internationally. Learn more at www.gullcrydance.com and www.TEALaborstories.com.

Take some time to gather with dispute resolution practitioners to connect and exchange experiences with like-minded individuals.

Happy Hour Northwest welcomes arbitrators, attorneys, conflict coaches, students, educators, mediators, other DR-related practitioners, and anyone interested in the field. Join us in a safe space where conversations are constructive, respectful, and remain private among the group.
