

WSBA SECTIONS | 2025 YEAR IN REVIEW

Construction Law

Construction Law Section members share common interests on a wide variety of issues related to the construction industry and all aspects of government procurement. The Section promotes the education of members in laws, regulations, and administrative and court decisions, and the sound development of relevant laws and regulations, cooperating in that endeavor with the American Bar Association and its sections, while also promoting the objectives of the Washington State Bar Association. Section members engage in a broad spectrum of business activities relating to contract drafting and negotiation and bidding processes, as well as all varieties of dispute resolution including arbitration, mediation, litigation, and bid protest.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

OCT. 1, 2024 - SEPT. 30, 2025

- Hosted the Midyear CLE in June, featuring comprehensive updates on construction law and engaging judicial panels.
- Organized a visit to the new Seattle Aquarium, providing members with a unique opportunity for legal and industry engagement.
- Sponsored a Mariners game for members to facilitate camaraderie.
- Published and distributed two quarterly newsletters, offering critical case updates, legislative news, and section announcements.
- Updated and enhanced the section's LinkedIn presence and other social media platforms to improve member engagement.
