

SECTIONS

The ELDER LAW SECTION improves understanding by members of the Washington State Bar Association of the legal needs that are faced by elderly citizens in the state of Washington. The Section provides a cooperative structure through which members can work together to better understand the issues in the field and effective problem-solving approaches; assists the elderly citizens of Washington state and those who represent the elderly; strengthens the ability by members to more effectively identify the legal needs of the elderly; and provides information to and facilitates coordination with those agencies of government that provide services to the elderly in the state of Washington.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR JAN. 1, 2020 - DEC. 31, 2020

- Continued to support a summer internship in elder law.
- Provided an annual donation ($15,000) to the WSBA Legal Foundation of Washington to be used solely for the benefit of Northwest Justice Project for the production of Medicaid Bulletins.
- Raised funds for the summer internship in elder law by hosting an annual fundraiser. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Section did not hold a fundraiser in 2020. Fortunately, the fundraiser had been so successful in the past that the Section raised enough money for internships for the next two years.
