

Indian Law Section Executive Committee Meeting Agenda

March 15, 2023 – 12:00-1:00pm

(1) NALSA Donation Requests (Bree and Drew)

- a. SU NALSA/AILJ would like to send nine (9) students to the Indian law fed bar conference next month, and have asked if WBSA ILS can help with fundraising. SU NALSA/AILJ needs $4,700.00 in funding to cover the remaining expenses associated with the trip. SU NALSA/AILJ has received $1,000 from various sources at SU, and is planning a bake sale to raise other funds. We would like to propose making a $4,700.00 donation to SU NALSA for the students to take the trip.
- b. UW NALSA would like to send students to the Indian law fed bar conference next month as well, and have asked WBSA ILS for a donation to their Salmon Bingo fundraiser. UW NALSA did not specify the dollar amount they needed to fully fund their trip. It appears that UW NALSA is directly soliciting donations from law firms. I've attached the information flyers for the Salmon Bingo event. We would like to propose making a $2,720.00 donation, which would make us a "Benefactor" of the Salmon Bingo event with a reserved table.
 - i. As a "Benefactor" we would have a reserved table and (1) reserved tables will be at the front of the event, along with their NALSA Mentorship Program, UW Administration, NALC/TCC Faculty, and other Tribal Court/NALSA invited guests, and includes a "Reserved" sign for our organization; (2) guests at reserved tables will be invited to go through the buffet line first; and (3) reserved tables include a larger centerpiece gift put together by the NALSA board.
- c. The total amount of the proposed donations is $7,420.00. We currently have $8,226.35 left in our annual budget for scholarships, donations, and grants.

(2) Bar News Section Spotlight (Bree)

- a. The Indian Law Section will appear in the Section Spotlight section of the July/August edition of Bar News. I have attached the questions to this email, and it would be great if we could have a short brainstorming session about answers. Our write up is due May 1, and I am aiming to present a draft to the board for review and approval next month.

(3) CLE Update (CLE Committee)

(4) Misc. Business
