II. CALL TO ORDER:

III. REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF OCTOBER 2022 MINUTES

IV. Vote on Sally White Harmeling's replacement

Carrie Lofts is interested in joining the IP Section's Executive Committee and is eager to help expand our reach on the East Side. You can find her law firm bio here:

<https://www.foster.com/people-carrie-lofts>

To make her appointment official, we need the EC to vote on the appointment.

(FYI: to clarify how an appointment works, whoever is appointed will automatically be on the ballot June 2023 to be elected by the section membership for the remainder of the term (Sally was starting her second year in a two-year term), whether that term ends next Sept. 30 or in subsequent years).

V. Shanthi & Kevin Plachy: CLE section splits of net revenue

- B. IP Section is well funded. Excess savings in the bank. Did not spend money on social events in past years due to Covid.

XI. OTHER ITEMS TO CONSIDER:

- A. Email from Oregon-based recent law grad—are there ways to help him get involved?

Hello Dario,

I hope this email finds you well. My name is Jacob McCormack, and I am a recent law grad from Lewis and Clark. I'm currently based in Portland, Oregon at the moment, but I am licensed in Washington. I wanted to connect with you and see if there are any ways I can volunteer with the IP Section of the Washington Bar Association. Where ever you all might want some help, I'd love to do so and get involved with this community.

Best,

Jacob McCormack

- B. Scholarship to the local law schools
- C. New standing subcommittee for the future marketing of our CLEs.

- i. New efforts could include: more social media outreach, better highlighting of keynote speakers, leveraging the marketing capabilities of law firms that have attorneys speaking at the events, and the like.
- ii. Start calling an “active” mailing list.

XII. NEXT MEETING

A. December 15
