WSBA Young Lawyer Liaison to Sections Application

The WSBA Young Lawyer Liaison to Sections Program creates an opportunity for a WSBA Section to strengthen the connection with the new and young lawyer community by electing a new and young lawyer to serve as a Liaison to the section. In collaboration with the section, Liaisons volunteer by bringing their perspective and connections to building educational programming, events, and other section activities tailored to new and young lawyers.

In order to become a Liaison, applicants must meet the “Young Lawyer” qualification in the WSBA Bylaws, meaning that they are an active member of the WSBA who have been admitted to practice for less than five years in any jurisdiction, or who is age 36 or younger, whichever is later. Young Lawyers who want to apply to more than one section liaison position must fill out an application for each section.

The position is a two-year term beginning Oct. 1, 2022 or thereafter, unless otherwise indicated.

Applicants who are chosen to serve as Liaisons must attend a virtual Liaison orientation with WSBA staff and section leadership.
