

Disciplinary Advisory Round Table Volunteer Position Description

The Disciplinary Advisory Round Table (DART) acts as a forum for the discussion of issues affecting the discipline system for licensed legal professionals in Washington state. DART provides an annual report to the Washington Supreme Court and the WSBA Board of Governors, including any recommendations for change and the identification of concerns or issues.

Position overview: DART members meet on an ad hoc basis to review, discuss, and provide comment on issues that concern the discipline system.

Appointment is for a 3-year term beginning October 2025 and is eligible for reappointment to one additional term.

Time commitment: DART holds one to two-hour meetings on an ad hoc basis. Meetings are primarily held remotely.

Open Positions: Available to all active members and public members.

- 1 Lawyer Minority Bar Association representative member
- 1 Public member (a member of the public or community)
- 1 Limited Practice Officer (LPO)

Preferred qualifications and skills: Some knowledge of court or administrative-adjudicative processes and procedural rules would be helpful.

Benefits: Members will learn about the lawyer discipline system and process and the development of discipline systems for other licensed legal professionals in Washington state.

Reimbursement policy: This is an unpaid volunteer position. Members will be reimbursed under WSBA's committee volunteer reimbursement policy.

Selection and appointment process: The WSBA Board of Governors appoints members subject to the approval of the Washington Supreme Court.
